PROMISE NEW EVENTS AT COUNTY FAIR NEXT WEEK; BEGIN TUESDAY

Final preparations are now in full swing for what promises to be one of the most outstanding programs ever staged in the 109 years of the Oxford County Agricultural Society. Fair officials have set up a schedule of mid-century features that will give full backing to the slogan adopted for the 1950 exhibition, "The County Fair with the Modern Flair."

Every department will be teeming with activity from the minute the gates are swung open on Tuesday morning, Sept. 12, until they are closed at midnight, Sept. 16.

Five days of spirited horse pulling contests getting underway Tuesday with additional events staged under the big lights, highlighted by the open-to-the-state Sweepstakes on Thursday, will again place the Oxford County Fair as the foremost fair in the State with its pulling events.

Additional bleachers will be set up around the pulling arena to augment the grandstand in providing seating facilities for the bigger and better pulling program at the mid-century showing. Officials have set up purses totaling $1625 for this one department.

In addition to the regular dairy show the officials this year are adding as a mid-century feature the Maine Ayrshire Breeders Association show. This event will be staged Thursday and will bring together for exhibition many of the outstanding Ayrshire herds in the state. Generous premiums have been set up for this event which is the first of a series to be sponsored each year by the fair. A different breed will be shown in succeeding years.

As in past years Friday will again be set aside for the hundreds of boys and girls enrolled in the 4-H Clubs of Oxford County. As guests of the fair association the boys and girls who will be future farmers in our state will be entertained with special programs of interest to each member.

A showmanship contest for junior and senior club members will get underway at 11 a. m., after which the two champions will compete for a grand championship trophy.

A parade will be held in the afternoon and at that time the Ed Keller award of $50 will be awarded to the outstanding boy and girl in the county.

The first floor of the exhibition hall has been transformed into a giant Better Homes Exhibition, another mid-century feature of the fair. In this vast hall scores of local dealers will show the latest in home appliances and equipment. Every display will be shown in a modern setting.

Grange exhibits, Boy and Girl Scout exhibits, a Flower Show, as well as domestic arts will be a feature of the second floor of the exhibition hall. This department will be open every evening until a late hour to give all an opportunity to view the scores of displays.

The Maine Wildlife, Forestry, Agricultural exhibits will occupy generous spaces in a separate building on the fair grounds. These interesting and educational exhibits will be complete in every respect and will be displayed under the supervision of state officials.

A five-day racing program with parimutuel betting will start Tuesday. Eight events are carded for each afternoon with post time at 1:30. Frank Whitman will have charge of the huge parimutuel plant located under the grandstand.

A stage show will be presented daily on the open air stage across the track from the grandstand. Acts will be presented between race heats, and evening shows will be staged nightly with band concert by the Norway Community Band scheduled for 8 p. m. to precede the night shows.

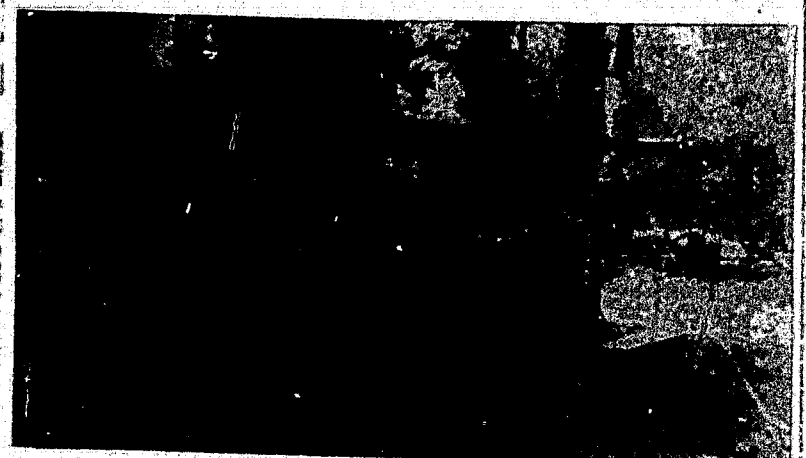

On the midway this year, King Field, New England's outstanding outdoor showman, will provide the fun and the thrills for young and old. This carnival is one of the largest traveling in the east, and is famed for its shows and rides.

As in past years the officials have set aside Tuesday as Young America's Day when every school child in Oxford County is the guest of the fair. King Field has lowered the midway prices so that every child can enjoy every feature of the huge fun trail.

Evening Night will be held Monday night when the midway will be in full swing and fair goers can have the opportunity of seeing that Oxford County Fair is again in 1950 the Tops in Maine Fairs.

Bethel Boy Scouts Build Camping Trailer

During the past season the Boy Scouts of Bethel have built a camping trailer, which was first shown at the Bazaar on August 26. This trailer or "trek-car" was designed and built by the boys themselves and is intended to be used chiefly on annual camporees and extended camping trips. It is built to accommodate 20 boys and all their gear and is so designed as to serve as a sheltered place to cook and eat as well as a vehicle to haul equipment.

The trailer involved considerable work, some 200 hours is a rough estimate, and was made possible

BRIEF EXPLANATION OF LIST OF QUESTIONS SUBMITTED TO VOTERS NEXT MONDAY

In addition to choosing state and county officials at elections Sept. 11, voters will be given a list of five questions on which to vote "yes" or "no." These questions were studied by Maine legislators, then referred to us for final approval or rejection.

Unless voters have given some study to each question, it will be impossible for them to make an intelligent decision. As part of its Voters' Service, the Public Relations Department of the Maine Republican Party herewith explains briefly the purpose of each question.

Question No. 1 reads: "Shall the constitution be amended as proposed by a resolution of the Legislature to codify the constitution?" This seeks permission to arrange the state constitution in readable, usable form; omitting all material not in force, but making no changes in the provisions themselves or in the language. Voters who favor this will make a cross in the "yes" box.

No. 2, if accepted, would require state legislators to file initiated legislation within 45 days after the legislature convenes in regular session, instead of "at least 30 days before the close of the session," as the constitution now provides. The change would insure ample opportunity for action on proposed legislation.

A "yes" vote on No. 3 would make it possible for the state to borrow money without amending the constitution each time a major financing program is found necessary or desirable.

No. 4 would permit construction of a combination highway and railroad bridge, with approaches across Fore River between Portland and South Portland.

No. 5 would apportion representatives to the Maine Legislature according to population, so that each representative would represent as nearly as possible the same number of persons. As now worded, the state constitution is unconstitutional on that score.

BETHEL A. C. SLAUGHTERS VIRGINIA INDIANS

The Bethel A. C. gained revenge on the Virginia Indians last Saturday afternoon on the Gould athletic field, when they scored a 10-1 triumph behind the steady four-hit pitching of Herb Kittredge.

The winners scored three runs in the first on two walks and a like number of hits, with a Haliee wild pitch helping along the cause. In the second a walk to Bud Kneeland, a double by Archie Young, an error by shortstop Chick Vigor and Pete Baker's second straight single caused the Virginia powers-that-be to reach the decision that a change of hurlers might be advantageous.

Jim Orino received little better support as Larry Sanders' soft pop fly was mired by Chick Vigor for his second miscue of the frame. If Berry reached on a fielder's choice but was caught stealing and Rolfe struck out to end the frame a single run was scored by Bethel in the fifth and two runs in the eighth ended the winner's scoring.

Although the A. C. won the contest, the majority of the players decided that it would be better not to compete in the YACQ tourney at Rumford this week. The early starting times of the games was one of the factors considered.

Mrs. Charles M. Pingree, widow of Charles Pingree, died early Sunday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Olive T. Davis at South Woodstock after a short illness.

She was born in Albany, May 15, 1860, the daughter of William and Elizabeth Foster Foster. She was a member of the Bridgton American Legion Auxiliary, Order of Eastern Star at Bolster's Mills, and the North Bridgton Congregational Church.

Before Mr. Pingree's death the family lived in North Albany and for some years in Bethel while the older children attended the Academy.

She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Davis; Mrs. Ethel Towne, South Bridgton; Mrs. Annis Koniston and Mrs. Lillian Harmon of Bridgton; a sister, Mrs. Gertrude Foster, Bridgton; and several grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the I. W. Andrews & Son funeral home, South Woodstock. Interment was in the family lot in Albany.

MOLLICONE - NOYES

Miss Marilyn Rose Noyes of East Bethel became the bride of Philip Mollicone of Livermore Falls in a ceremony at Newman Hall Chapel, Orono, Sunday afternoon, Sept. 3, at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Fr. E. J. LeCourneau performed the ceremony using the double ring service. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. LeClare of Orono as matron of honor and best man.

The bride's gown was of bright green tulle with an overskirt of white net, and bodice and peplum of white lace, and white net veil. Her flowers were white gladioli. The matron of honor was gowned in pink with a corsage of yellow gladioli.

Those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie A. Noyes of East Bethel and Miss Carolyn Noyes, parents and sister of the bride, and Mrs. Filomena Mollicone of Livermore Falls, mother of the groom.

Miss Mollicone is a graduate of Gould Academy and the University of Maine, and a member of Phi Kappa Phi. She is employed at the Maine Agricultural Experiment Station at Orono.

Mr. Mollicone is a graduate of Livermore Falls High School and the University of Maine and is employed by the Maine Highway Department. He is at present in charge of a bridge construction project at Limestone. He is a veteran of World War II.

The young couple plan to make their home at Orono.

A. C. CLIPS RAIDERS, 9-0, IN SHORT LABOR DAY GAME

All evidence pointed to a lack of ability in the fielding department as the Raiders committed six errors in the four and one-half inning contest at Thurston Field on Labor Day afternoon. The A. C. combed Baker's services for seven hits during his tenure on the hill and got one hit from the slants of Bailey.

After Bob Baker had retired the first two batters of the game, Pete homered over the left field fence. A walk to Larry Sanders, if Berry's double off the fence in left center, a single by Bud Kneeland and Gary Morgan's two-base throwing error netted the victors four runs. Five additional runs were tallied on four hits in the third inning.

REPORT SALE OF 25 MILLION STUMPAGE IN WILD RIVER AREA

Sale of 25 million board feet of lumber stumpage near the Maine-New Hampshire line in the White Mountain National Forest was announced Monday. The sale is one of the largest ever made on an eastern national forest and will consist of marked pulpwood, mill wood, veneer and sawlogs ready for harvest.

The purchaser was the Nadeau Lumber Company of Berlin, N. H. This company is now operating a smaller sale on the national forest and has about a million feet left to log in the Upper Ammonoosuc Area. They will have the last logs of this earlier sale out by the end of summer. The new sale is in the Wild River chance in the Evans Notch District of the forest.

Cutting is expected to begin promptly. The U. S. Forest Service plans to keep ahead of the operating company in marking the trees to be cut and will have four million feet marked by the end of the current calendar year. The sale can run for 10 years, but the purchaser expects to finish it much sooner. The terms on which the timber was sold provide for periodic renegotiation of price during the operation, in line with current market quotations.

The Nadeau Company is primarily a firm of loggers and operates no mills. Therefore, the operation is expected to be of the integrated type in which the purchaser markets the cut to various processors, selling to each the type of logs used in its particular industry. It is anticipated that the Brown Company will get most of the pulpwood. White birch millwood and other logs best suited to turning will probably go to nearby Maine turneries. Veneer logs and sawlogs, it is expected, will be sold to lumber and veneer mills reasonably close by in Maine and New Hampshire.

Typical scene of traffic tie-up on Vaughan Bridge

Next Monday, Maine voters will be asked to express their opinions on a resolution of the legislature to authorize a bond issue of not more than $7,000,000 to build a combination highway and railroad bridge, without draw, across Fore River, at Portland, the gateway bridge to Maine on U. S. Route #1.

AN AFFIRMATIVE VOTE will require an Amendment to our State's Constitution — and it's well worth it!

THE PROPOSED STEEL AND CEMENT DOUBLE DECK BRIDGE would eliminate danger of damage or destruction by fire or ship collision to the vital transportation links between eastern Maine and the rest of the country and the serious and permanent economic loss to our farms, industries and labor which would result. It would further eliminate — permanently — highway and railroad congestion at this point and the tie-ups and large expense presently involved in the operation and maintenance of the highway draw bridge.

THE MANDATORY ALTERNATIVE to building a new bridge is the widening of the draw in Vaughan Bridge (the highway bridge) at a cost to the State of about $1,200,000, which must be derived from the general highway fund. This is a War Department order — and if it is carried out, virtually nothing will have been accomplished despite the big expenditure of Maine funds.

THE INTERFERENCE WITH HIGHWAY TRAFFIC will continue: Tankers will still have to maneuver in the constricted basin between the bridges, and all the hazards and uncertainties which are now a constant threat to the safety of rail and highway traffic will continue as at present.

COMMON SENSE INDICATES that it is far better to issue bonds at a low interest rate and paid for over a long period of years to provide permanently adequate, safe rail and highway approaches into Maine, than to spend $1,200,000 on a project that falls far short of solving the problem — or, indeed, of making any real improvement in the present situation — and which, in addition, deprives the State and the taxpayers of money which could otherwise be used for road improvements in the State of Maine.

Nobody's Business

On page one are related briefly the questions to be decided by Maine voters on Sept. 11. These should be given as much serious thought as the choice of officials or the usual local option referendum questions.

Too little has been said about the candidates for election and what they stand for. Too little is likely to be believed in the reported statements by candidates of either party, because there should be some truth in the claims of both sides. Too many of us will vote in the light of other people's opinions without regard for easily determined facts. We are told that Republican candidates are generally opposed to the present methods practiced by the Washington government, while the Democratic candidates approve and are committed to the support of the "new" and "fair" deal principals. It should not be difficult to make a choice of our representatives and state officials on these points.

For another two year period we have the chance to decide on the local sale of liquor. Since the repeal of prohibition, which many still consider a failure, the problem of alcoholism has become an unsolved problem. Those seeking to increase the sale of liquor in as many communities as possible have nothing to say of the abuses and consequences of the growing use of alcoholic "beverages." Daily newspapers carry frequent accounts of the results of drinking, a habit that too often is carried to great excess, such as traffic accidents and deaths, murders, and many crimes which sober men and women seldom commit. Those in favor of having more sale outlets point with pride to taxes received, the state's liquor profits, etc. If you believe that the increase of this revenue is to be desired and that your community is or will be better for permitting liquor in any form to be sold therein, then you should say so. If you believe that persons favoring the sale of alcoholic drinks are, as always, interested in their own profits, and that you and your neighbors are better off if less liquor is consumed, you should vote. No on all local option questions next Monday.

It's Still True . . .

. . . The axiom that "As Maine Goes, So Goes the Nation."

Clear thinking, stability, initiative--qualities that make the United States a great nation--are born in the citizens of our State. We have pointed the way to freedom since the founding of this great Republic.

Let there be no change. We must strive now, harder than ever before, to keep our freedom at home, and abroad.

Freedom at home means freedom from complete control of our everyday lives by the Government in Washington. And at the same time it means freedom from control by Communists abroad, or anywhere else.

We are in the middle of an international situation which becomes more serious every hour. Add to this the fact that our freedoms at home have become fewer, and fewer during the past 17 years and you create a dire need for the most effective leadership this nation can produce.

On September 11--Election Day--all registered voters in Maine have a chance to express their opinions about how things are going.

In the best traditions of our forefathers we will vote and speak for freedom.
